

BIOGRAPHY

Captain Raymond S. Williams (Retired)
Windham Police Department

I joined the Windham Police Department in September of 1986, attending the Maine Criminal Justice Academy in January of 1987. I worked as a patrolman until July of 2009 when I was promoted to Detective. I started teaching for the Maine Criminal Justice Academy in the early 90's and was part of the first DRE class, graduating in 1991. I also completed training as a Firearms Instructor, attending Methods of Instruction in 2002, becoming a Maine Criminal Justice Academy Certified Firearms Instructor. In 2007 I attended the DRE Instructor School, helping to train dozens of new DRE's. In 2015 I became an Intoxilyzer instructor. In November of 2014 I was promoted to Patrol Sergeant and took over as the Lead Firearms Instructor for the Windham Police Department. In December of 2020 I was promoted to Patrol Captain and remained in that role until I retired on May 1st, 2023. In 2024 I will continue teaching with Dirigo Safety LLC focusing on Drug Impairment Education to in-service police officers.
