

Brett M. Naumcheff, M.S., J.D.
Constitutional Policing and Policy Advisor
Police Attorney

Brett M. Naumcheff is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals and all Michigan State Courts. He has 27 years of police experience and 23 years of public safety legal advising experience. As a Police Officer he earned the Medal of Honor and the Meritorious Service Award while surviving three hand to hand deadly force encounters. He made a record number of drug and weapon seizures while assigned those focused duties. As a lawyer, Brett has represented his client base in State, Federal, Administrative and Tribal Courts throughout the State of Michigan.

Naumcheff holds a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology and a Master's Degree in Administration from Central Michigan University. He earned a Juris Doctorate from Thomas M. Cooley Law School. His client base includes public safety departments and public sector project clients. Naumcheff serves as a Police Legal Advisor to a variety of local, state and federal law enforcement entities and professionals. His work with those departments includes a wide variety of tasks from training to policy review to critical incident planning along with serving in a quality control function doing ongoing police practice Constitutionality assessments.

On the national stage, Brett is a retained police law, practice and liability expert. He is the National Police Attorney Coordinator for the PLEA. In that position, he presents and teaches groups across the United States on topics such as Constitutional and Holistic Policing, Use of Force and Police Civil Liability. Naumcheff recently taught Constitutional and Holistic Police training programs for CALEA, NAPO and the FBINAA.

His teaching experience includes Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, Michigan Sheriff's Association, FOP, Teamsters, MMRMA, Northwestern University School of Police Staff and Command, Eastern Michigan University School of Police Staff and Command, MACLEA and Central Michigan University. In addition to responding to critical police matters, Brett teaches Criminal Law and Police Procedure, Officer Involved Shooting Law and Policy, Investigating Police Use of Force, Police Discipline and Discharge Law, Michigan School Resource Officers Law and Practice, Supervisor Liability Law and the Legal Aspects of Conducted Electronic Weapons for Michigan Law Enforcement Training Associates.